Lt. Roger Foss - New Party Secretary

Roger C. Foss, a 32 year old battle scarred trooper, has been appointed the new National Secretary - replacing James Warner. Lt. Foss, a native of Minnesota, served three years in the famed 82nd Airborne Division and a year at sea with the Maritime Service. After studying at the University of Minnesota, Lt. Foss went to Florida where he boxed professionally. He recently made international headlines by exposing Soviet First Secretary Ivanov for spy activities which caused Ivanov's expulsion from this country.

NAZIS STOP SIT-IN

During the summer, troopers distributed thousands of anti-integration leaflets at every Arlington, Virginia drug store that Negro sit-ins invaded. At one particular Drug-Fair store - troopers marched, outside and inside, with picket signs. A crowd of over two hundred persons gathered and a riot almost erupted between whites and Negroes when the Commander came to blows with a husky Negro porter. Police moved in and dispersed the crowd, ordering the Negroes to leave. Negro sit-in demonstrators thereafter announced that sit-ins at that particular drug store would be halted indefinitely.

SPAIN

The Falange Española commemorated the twenty-forth anniversary of the execution of their martyr-leader and founder, José Antonio Primo de Rivera, on the twentieth of November. The American Nazi Party submitted upon request, an article to the official publication of the Spanish government, commemorating the event. The memory of the heroic anti-Communist, martyr-leader, José Antonio Primo de Rivera, shall always flame in the hearts of honest white men all over the world who fight in the defense of our priceless Western culture.

JAPAN

Otaya Yamaguchi, a courageous youth of seventeen, exterminated a Communist pest, Inejiro Asanuma, chairman of the Japanese Socialist Party. Before the eyes of thousands, young Yamaguchi boldly allowed his sword to speak for millions oppressed by Communism in Japan. Yamaguchi cheated the blood-seeking Communists of their chance for revenge by taking his faith into his own hands. He committed suicide. The Greater Japan Patriotic Party, to which young Yamaguchi once belonged, uses the Swastika as their symbol.

AUSTRALIA

During the middle of this September past, the Melbourne, Australia headquarters of the Nationalist Workers Party had all their office equipment, files, and papers confiscated by the Commonwealth Investigation Service. The local Jewish press headlined the illegal confiscation giving the usual impression that such activity is illegal.

HUNGARY

Four years ago, Soviet Army tanks crushed the life out of the heroic and desperate attempt of the Hungarian people to gain freedom for themselves while America and the free world looked on. Hungarian people in exile all over the world commemorate the sacrifice of the innumerable dead and in Soviet slave-labor camps.

Smear Stories

Two controversial magazines with nation-wide circulation, 'Sick' and 'Confidential', this month carried smear propaganda against Commander Rockwell and our movement. 'Sick' magazine depicted the Commander in a 'doll cut-out', surrounded by some of the most immature and foolish paraphernalia; while 'Confidential', in a four page smear, asserted that the Commander was a 'two-bit Hitler' persecuting the poor underprivileged Jews (and their underprivileged Cadillacs) by speaking out against Communism and integration. Hitler once said, "It doesn't matter what they say about us or how they say it . . . so long as they say something about us!"

NAZIS in HOLLYWOOD

On the other side of our nation, three thousand miles away in Hollywood, California, three party troopers bravely picketed before a movie theatre where integrationist Sammy Davis, Jr., was playing. The troopers, led by Leonard Holstein, were dressed in party uniform with armbands. While picketing against race-mixing, they were attacked by a mob of bigots. Sympathetic police, unable to restrain the mob, quickly intervened, taking our troopers to police headquarters for their 'protection'. As a result of their action, the troopers are the target of ugly smears and rumors. This is a sure sign that, by their demonstration, they inflicted deep and hurting wounds into the hides of the liberals and race-mixers. (see back page)

Nazis Receive Honorables

October, 1960 - Pearl Harbor, Hawaii: Marine Corps Private First Class Charlie Beveridge, serving with the Marine Corps Security Company at our Pearl Harbor Base, received an Honorable discharge six months prior to his 'expiration term of service' date. Beveridge is an active party trooper who underwent extensive investigation by Naval authorities because of his correspondence and affiliation with the American Nazi Party. During Trooper Beveridge's investigation in Hawaii-Trooper Patler, stationed over five thousand miles away at the Marine Base in Quantico, Virginia, was being fraudulently discharged from the U. S. Marine Corps with a General Discharge. Trooper Patler promptly filed his complaint and civil suit of conspiracy and fraud against the Jewish War Veterans and Marine Corps officials in Federal Court. Since that suit was initiated, members of the Armed Forces who are now found to be active members and supporters of the American Nazi Party are, (most understandably), receiving HONORABLE discharges. Further evidence to support this assertion is the Honorable discharge of yet another party member - Trooper Charles Bell of Georgia. Bell was stationed with the U. S. Army in Germany as an electronics technician. When his political inclinations became known - Army investigators ramsacked his wall locker, confiscating all his personal papers and letters. Two days later Trooper Bell was flying back to the States with an Honorable discharge.

In memory of our spiritual leader and philosophical genius...

Man of Destiny

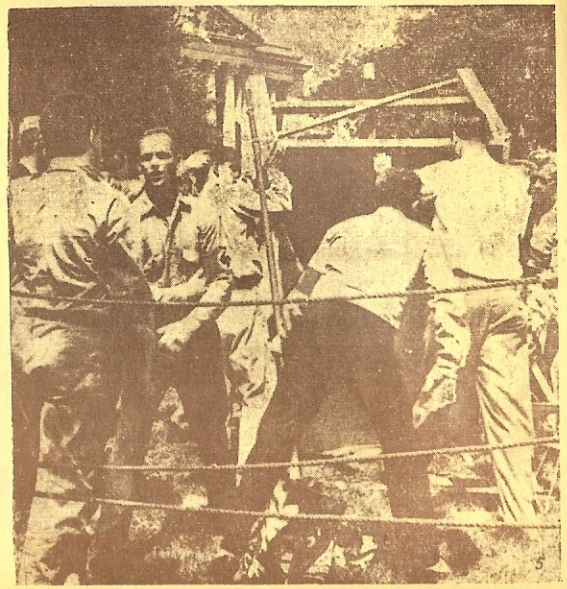
Rally on the Mall

Throughout the summer months, in the heart of the nation's capital, the American Nazi Party has been staging successful anti-Communist rallies on the Mall. The Mall is located halfway between the Capitol and the Washington Monument, and across the street from the Justice Department. Because of its strategic location, the Mall is frequented by thousands of tourists visiting Washington from all over the country. Attracted by the blaring loud-speakers and uniformed troopers, hundreds came and listened every weekend. Speaking from a flag-draped platform, and flanked by troopers, Commander Rockwell delivered hell-raising speeches for two hours regularly each Sunday. As a safety measure, troopers were dispersed among the audience and around the speakers platform in order to thwart any attempts of violence on the part of hecklers and potential trouble-makers.

The Battle at Washington Nazi Rally

RIOT on the MALL

On July 3rd, 1960, during a regular Sunday rally, a group of more than two hundred organized thugs, mostly heavy set Jews, surrounded the speaker's platform screaming and shouting insults each time the Commander attempted to speak. The mob, working itself into a frenzy, threatened violence. Our troopers, out among the crowd, were working hard to distract potential rioters when the police ordered all of them to stand within the roped enclosure. There were only nine troopers present that day, and by standing within the enclosure they gave away their strength to the mob. Recognizing their superiority in numbers, the mob burst through the ropes and a raging battle ensued. Our troopers courageously stood their ground, as their predecessors did in the beer halls of Germany, matching blow for blow, until police finally managed to qualm the riot. Our troopers were all arrested, tried and fined - while several of the rioters, who were also arrested, were released without charges.



HE ATTRACTS REGULARLY AS MANY AS 1,000 CURIOSITY-SEEKING LISTENERS.

Beatnik Battle

A two hour debate was held between Commander Rockwell, representing Nazism, and Beatnik William Walker, representing Democracy, in the Coffe 'n Confusion beatnik center. Walker is the alleged 'King of Beatniks' in the nation's capitol. The Commander effectively and expertly blasted Beatnik Walker and his credo to pieces. Before a packed audience of troopers and beatniks, the Commander tore the 6,000,000 Jew propaganda and all its mendacity, into irreparable shreads. The full two hour debate has been captured on tape and is now available from party headquarters. This tape will serve as a lesson in debate and effective argument. It will give those of you, who are not aquainted with the Commander, the opportunity to hear him in your own home.

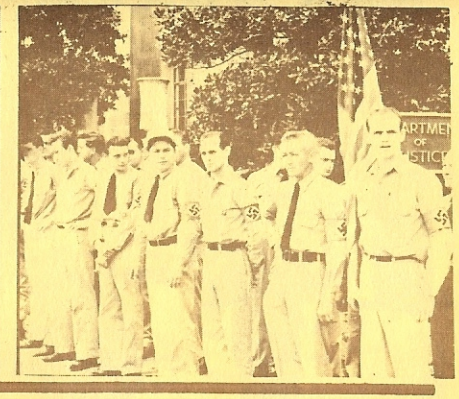
On Our Own

Ninety percent of what we accomplish is done through sheer effort; coupled with guts, brains and a determined will. The bulletin was layed-out, justified, printed, and prepared - from beginning to end - by troopers working together here at headquarters. We daily receive many letters of thanks and appreciation. This is all well and good - but . . . it does not put food in a trooper's stomach; it does not put ink in our press; it does not heat and light our headquarters. Money is fuel. Without it we cannot run our machinery. Remember, two years ago you would never have dreamed it was possible that anyone would dare step out and stand in the streets with a swastika on his arm. The pictures throughout this bulletin depict otherwise. With your continued devotion and financial aid - we will, within a short period of time, prove that it can be done all over the country, as we are doing it here now.

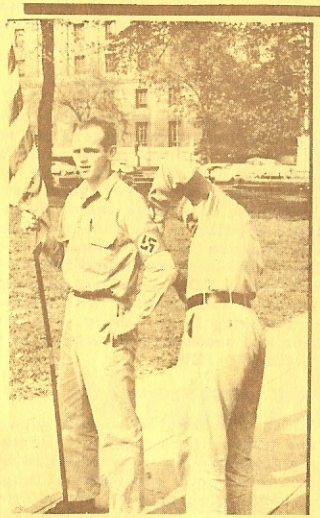
Trooper Dick Braun wearing a monkey suit - before embarking on a tour of 'sit-in locations' to ridicule the demonstrators.

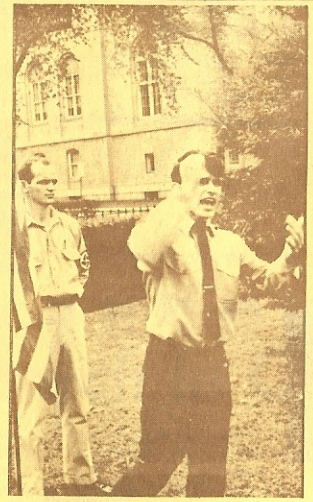
Monkey Sit-in

Ridicule is an effective weapon when properly employed. To demonstrate the utter ridiculousness of sit-in demonstrations, and to counteract this latest integrationist tactic in a humorous light, the party rented a complete hairy-ape costume and exploited it to the utmost. The costume, with a trooper inside (see picture), visited drug stores where negroes were staging a sit-in and ordered a banana split - while demanding civil rights for monkeys too! The Ape also visited the Washington Zoo and drove throughout the downtown business section in an open convertible, carrying an assortment of picket signs all the way.



ACTION SPEAKS LOUDER THAN WORDS





The pictures on this page depict, candidly, a typical Sunday of Party activities in Washington, D.C. Beginning with the first picture in the upper left hand corner, we see a portion of the troops standing 'at ease' on the Mall (scene of a past riot); next we see a platoon of Party Troopers standing 'ready' in front of the Justice Department for their march to Judiciary Park; next, a Trooper adjusts standard bearer's armband; Trooper Patler delivering an introductory speech at a Nazi rally in Judiciary Park; Trooper Roy James passing out literature in front of the FBI Field Headquarters; Commander Rockwell informally inspecting Troopers prior to the march; and, newly-appointed National Secretary, Lieutenant Roger Foss, handing out literature to a passerby in front of the Old Post Office building.

Trooper Grant comically imitates a typical supporter of 'Kennedy for President' while picketing outside Democratic Headquarters in Washington, D. C.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY

The weekly Pittsburgh Courier ran an exclusive story last month exposing an organization called the 'Fighting American Nationalists' as a Nazi front. This is a preposterous, unsupported and flagrant accusation. The American Nazi Party would never, never have anything to do with such 'sissy' type conservatives as the 'FAN'. We repudiate this humiliating use and association of our name with panty-waists.

JEWS Seek Release of RED SPY

A horde of New York Jews, led by their Rabbis, will picket the White House this month in protest of the imprisonment of one of their brethren - atomic spy Morton Sobel. This band calls itself 'the Committee to Free Morton Sobel'. They have made reservations at the fancy Shoreham Hotel in Washington for a three day convention. Much to their distress party troopers, at this very moment, are preparing a 'hearty' welcome.

ELEANOR is 'WELCOMED'

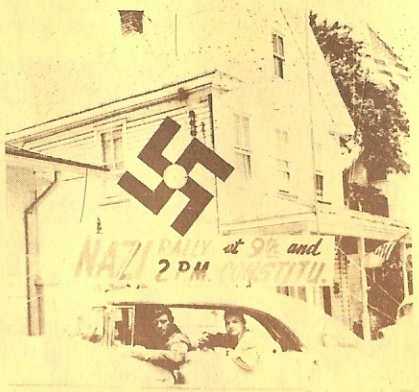
It has gotten to the point where left-wing, Communist sympathizers can no longer appear publicly in the nation's capital - without Nazi troopers on hand to extend THEIR 'greetings'. Such was the case when one of Washington's popular movie theatres featured 'Sunrise at Campobello' - a buildup of Eleanor and her Communistic husband, FDR. Troopers paraded in front of the theatre with picket signs exposing Dore Schary, who has written and produced the picture, as a COMMUNIST-JEW.

SNEAK ASSAULT

While attending an annual picnic and festival for orphaned children, the Commander was assaulted by four apparently professional thugs who then fled on foot into nearby woods. The Commander had been receiving numerous threats and warnings over the telephone, which crystallized into action when he strolled away by himself at the picnic. (This is the only answer they have to our arguments - and it doesn't convince anyone).

Troopers Advertise Rally

Before each weekend rally, troopers boldly advertised the event by decorating their cars with brightly colored signs and huge swastikas. Driving through the main avenuesof the Capitol, troopers and swastikas evoked a great deal of curiousity and 'shock.' ABOVE: Troopers drive by the Lincoln Memorial rendering a Sieg Heil! (Hail Victory) to photographer. RIGHT: The Deputy Commander, Major Morgan, and troopers prepare to drive off for morning of advertising. The building which houses National Party Headquarters is in the background.



Nazis March In Capitol

A platoon of American Nazi Party troopers, in full khaki uniform and brandishing bright red swastika armbands, marched a full mile from our old speaking grounds on the Mall - through the downtown section of Washington, D.C. - to Judiciary Park, where the final party rally for the season was held. Trooper John Patler delivered an introductory speech, after which Commander Rockwell gave a rousing oration blasting the Anti-Defamation League and the Communists.

'ISOLATION'

As a result of the riot on the Mall and the denial on the part of National Park authorities to allow us the continual use of the Mall for the exercise of our constitutional right of free speech, the Party was forced to move its weekly rally to Judiciary Park. An estimated crowd of 250 persons attended - in spite of the isolated locality. At the close of the rally, all troopers fell into formation and - led by Commander Rockwell - marched back to the Mall.

COMMANDER Rockwell Beats the Bug House..

Charged with 'disorderly conduct' for being 'offensive' to Jews and Communists in a public speech, the Prosecution claimed that Commander Rockwell was 'incompetent' and unable to understand the charges against himself. Dr. John Shultz, testifying for the Prosecution, asserted - after examining cartoons drawn by the Commander over twenty years ago - that there was an 'indication that their author was probably of unsound mind'. A certificate from a reputable pyschiatrist, ascertaining the Commander's competency, was not allowed to be introduced as evidence to the contrary. Judge Neilson then ordered the Commander to be committed to D.C. General Hospital for psychiatric observation. The following Friday a re-hearing was held in Municipal Court - in which it was disclosed that two psychiatrists from St. Elizabeth's insane asylum had gone voluntarily to D.C. General Hospital, conducted an examination and had found Commander Rockwell sane and mentally competent. Both psychiatrists were denied the opportunity to testify and assert their findings at the re-hearing. Yet the Prosecution was allowed to present their psychiatrist - who had not personally examined the Commander, and who only 'thought' the Commander might 'probably' be of unsound mind. Meanwhile, troopers were out in front of the White House every day, faithfully picketing and protesting the railroading of their leader (see pictures). Finally, even the psychiatrists at D.C. General Hospital found the Commander to be of sound mind - gave him a signed statement to that effect and released him. The whole episode is brilliantly portrayed in a booklet entitled, "How to Get Out or Stay Out of the Insane Asylum" -by Cmdr. Rockwell.

Protesting Cmdr. Rockwell's incarceration, troopers faithfully picket the White House as Negro policeman looks on.

Chicago under way

The Commander ended a three day successful visit to Chicago last week. He had gone there to organize an Illinois branch of the Party. The move was met with a great deal of enthusiasm on the part of our troopers in that area, who are anxious to get started.

TROOPERS PICKET KENNEDY HQS

Three weeks prior to the Presidential election, troopers picketed in protest before Democratic Party Headquarters in Washington. During the second day, a crowd of more than four hundred persons gathered to watch. Several Jews protested and informed the police that if we did not stop, they (the Jews) would take things into their own hands! The police then ordered our troops to leave or be arrested for disorderly conduct. All but Lt. Foss obeyed, remaining to test the constitutionality of the ordinance. Lt Foss was promptly arrested, and he spent the night in jail. The following morning the Cmdr., and all troops involved, were also arrested. All were released on personal bond and reappeared on the picket line until election day.

Merry Christmas to All Troopers

The American Nazi Party extends Christmas Greetings to all National Socialists around the world. We extend these greetings as a manifestation of our opposition to the concerted attempts of the Communists and Liberals, who are striving to destroy our country and our basic traditions.

"The Speechmakers"

It is the purpose of our movement to cultivate and train an army of speakers who will, at the given hour, carry forth to the white people our message of hope and enlightenment. Primarily, through the spoken word, we will inexorably lead our people out of the abyss of integration and ruin. Above - from left to right: Trooper John Patler, Trooper Dan Burros, and Commander Rockwell.

YOU ARE INVITED TO HQS

The American Nazi Party extends an open invitation to each and everyone of our followers to visit the National Headquarters in Arlington, Virginia. Trooper Forbas of Michigan (see picture) paid a four day visit to party headquarters, and in that time he saw and experienced action in no less than seven different activities and demonstrations. He was among the brave troopers attacked by a mob of Jewish thugs during the riot on the Mall in July.

When Sammy Davis, Jr. appeared in England, he was picketed and chased down the street by Mosely's British Fascists. Sammy exclaimed at the time that, "it could never happen in America." Unfortunately, for Sammy, it did happen in America when he appeared at the Lotus nightclub in Washington, D. C. Troopers marched there for three hours carrying signs protesting Sammy's integrationist aims.
